Intensive Out Patient & Out Patient Programs

Our intensive outpatient addiction treatment program is ideal for any person who requires flexibility and is in various stages of recovery from drug and alcohol addiction. We offer both day and evening sessions to fit your schedule. An Intensive Outpatient Program (IOP) is not to be confused with an inpatient facility that requires on site stay, close supervision and hospitalization. In many cases, an intensive outpatient program is the next level of care recommended to most patients who have completed a detox and inpatient drug rehab.

Commonly, an intensive outpatient facility offers the medical treatment you need to cope with early recovery but has the flexibility that will allow you to re-integrate into your work, family and social life.

The goal of recovery is to provide freedom—freedom to return to your daily living, and to the unique demands of work, school, and family, freed from the ill effects of addiction. Our clients may begin here in a residential program, but ultimately they will leave, and continue the important work of rebuilding their lives and relationships. Often, this is where the work of recovery becomes most challenging—making it imperative to have the right life skills in place. That's what the outpatient program at JC's Recovery Center is all about. We provide ongoing recovery, but also the liberty to resume life as normal.

Offered:

- ◆ Weekly addiction recovery groups
- ◆ Weekly family therapy groups
- ◆ Weekly one-on-one therapy
- ◆ Full evaluation for trauma/ unresolved grief
- ◆ Assessment for co-occurring mental health disorders
- ◆ Dual Diagnosis Treatment
- ◆ Life Coaching
- ◆ Spiritual Counseling
- ◆ Case Management
